7TH OCTOBER 2020

*Bonjour Fairlie, voulez-vous une crêpe?
Would you like a scrumptious crêpe?*

The Crêpe Lady, Lydia Willcocks moved to Fairlie in early 2019 with her husband and crêpe baby, bringing her mobile business, which she learned in France and had previously operated in Auckland and Christchurch. The Crêpe Lady has quickly gathered a loyal following around town, trading roadside on Mount Cook Road and popping up at local events like the A&P Show, Christmas Parade and Midwinter Bonfire night.

In a newly minted local partnership, The Crêpe Lady can now be found in a permanent location at the front of JR's General Store and Milk Bar. Lydia celebrated her opening day on Friday 2nd October, whipping up Parisian-style sweet and savoury pancakes for locals and visitors alike.

Crêpes are made fresh to order and The Crêpe Lady is proud to use locally produced, free range and organic ingredients.

The Crêpe Lady is open at JR's General Store, Thursday to Saturdays, 10 am-2 pm and looks forward to seeing you there!

Charlie Brown Café opens in Fairlie mid-October

Probably one of Fairlie's best un-kept secrets – Charlie Brown is coming to town!

We have been working on 61 Main Street for a while now, and some of you have been wondering and asking what is happening. We are very excited to finally share with you that the cute little cottage with the white picket fence right next door to inVOGUE and Heartlands will be Fairlie's very own Charlie Brown Café!

After the very warm welcome Charlie Brown – or Charlotte, as we call her - has received after her arrival in Kimbell in May this year, the wee green and white retro caravan is set to return to Otago in the next few days to honour the market and event bookings that have been scheduled for her during spring and summer.

The Charlie Brown Fairlie team

Charlie Brown Fairlie is due to open its doors mid-October and will bring a classic French café menu including sweet and savoury crêpes, fresh croissants, and Croque Monsieurs (French ham and cheese toasties) to the local community and visitors, aiming to contribute to the ever growing diverse offering of this beautiful town. Try our homemade sauces and fillings such as lemon curd, hazelnut spread and salted caramel sauce, alongside freshly brewed coffee or tea and seasonal iced drinks/smoothies.

We have created a wheelchair/pram accessible space with dedicated indoor and outdoor seating on the Main Street side of the building and inside the cottage garden to make this a go-to location for a family breakfast, friends catch up, group meeting or lunch hour retreat. Take away options will also be available to take across the road for a picnic in the park or playground.

Mackenzie Old Girls Netball 2020

Mackenzie Old Girls had another positive season, finishing in 2nd place for the year. We held on to the core of our team from last year. We had the retirement of Kelly Cassie, Pip Oliver had a break for 2020 and Stacey Grant moved to play for Pleasant Point. We welcomed back Vanessa Greenwood and Eve Wardle after the birth of their girls. Chloe Anderson joined the team this year in a shooting role after finishing Mackenzie College last year. We also welcomed Timaru sisters Juliet and Kelly Waud.

2020 and Covid restrictions meant the season started about 6 weeks later than usual, it was decided to be played over two rounds with no play-offs and no breaks for school holidays. There were no awards for the season other than the winners for each grade.

Round 1 started strongly with four good wins, we then had our first narrow loss to Geraldine High School, still managing to come away with a bonus point. We then carried on to beat Old Boys and in the final game of the round we lost to Craighead. However with our bonus point we were seeded 2nd heading into the next round.

Round 2 was played mostly under level two Covid restrictions, therefore we had no supporters, only the team and management were allowed in the stadium. We sailed through the start of the round again, met Geraldine High School this time defeating them by one goal. Points were tied at the top of the table between us and Craighead. The final game against Craighead had Mackenzie going down 19-27 in what was a very hard fought game, holding Craighead to their lowest score.

We would like to thank our very generous and supportive sponsors, Jo Rowland and Farmlands Fairlie for uniform sponsorship and Marg and Rob Thomas from Thomas No Tillage for indoor court fees.

Thank you also to Rachel Callaghan for her help on the bench each week, the guys that game to trainings in the first round and gave us some great competition and to Brittany Pyne for her umpiring contributions.

A final thank you must go to our wonderful supporters that were there every week, when allowed and to our husbands/support networks that looked after the 13 children from the Fairlie based players.

Men are Great

Donald Pettitt

I'm writing as someone that has thought a lot about men over the last decade. I run the Canterbury Men's Centre, based in Christchurch, so this has been more than a hobby for me. I'm even paid to get to know men.

I've done one on one intake support for about 1500 men, with those men having contacted us usually because they are trying to overcome a personal crisis of some kind. In that process, I ask guys a LOT of extremely intimate questions.

I ask if they have any thoughts of suicide. I ask if anything sexual happened to them in the past that shouldn't have. I ask about depression, anxiety, drinking and drugs. The current the past, and eventually their desired future situation.

The great thing is, almost all those guys were extremely forthcoming. They understand their internal world extremely well. They want the best for people around them and aim to create that. They want to be better dads, better people. They want to live lives where they aren't dogged by harsh memories or weighted by the challenge of unresolved relationships.

I don't have a "but" here. This is where people usually say something negative about men, or talk about what is wrong with them. I genuinely think men do pretty well in overcoming and living with lives challenges.

The truth is, I think we haven't done the best job of supporting them. And by "we", I mean people like me. We social workers, health workers, community workers. We haven't been doing the work to take care of men that we could have been doing.

The good news is, that is changing. My agency, the Canterbury Men's Centre has been very well supported by those health and community workers, including funders and government services to make positive changes. We've been able to do an awful lot for men, and I think that as long as we keep being efficient and wise in the approach we take that support will continue on.

The less good news, is we haven't done as much for men outside of Christchurch as I'd like us to have done. Things we have done include: The Blokes Book, a Fun for Older Men Book, a push to form men's sheds about a decade ago that probably has been part of the reason sheds have thrived in Canterbury (30 sheds so far!).

We've built a very large counselling service in Christchurch, with that involving those intake support sessions I describe above. And we now run the regions support service for male survivors of sexual abuse.

It keeps us busy, all of this. But what is keeping me busy now is the question of what we can do for men in this region (Mid and South Canterbury).

Uniqueness or Conformity?

Jackie Phillips

Everyone is unique – the world would be a very boring place if we were all the same! Are you content with your uniqueness, do you celebrate yourself as you are, or do you seek to be more like others? Society places expectations upon us and conditions us to conform, especially in social group situations. People tend to categorise themselves into social groups to pursue a greater sense of belonging and identity. This is especially prevalent during the teenage years and there is added peer pressure to be like others, which can lead to binge-drinking, sexual recklessness, dangerous driving and experimenting with drugs.

So why do we conform and seek assurance from our social groups? Our brains are evolutionarily programmed for survival to look for patterns and associations in nature and therefore we feel the need to categorise ourselves and compare ourselves with others. This is also the reason why there is prejudice, stereotyping and discrimination, much of which stems from implicit upbringing biases and experiences.

The more I study psychology, the stronger my beliefs are on labelling. Humans appear to have a strong desire to find reasons for why we are the way we are and why we do the things we do. It seems children are diagnosed and labelled with "disorders" from a very young age – Anxiety Disorder, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder, Borderline Personality Disorder, Obsessive Compulsive Disorder, Oppositional Defiance Disorder, Sensory Overload Disorder – the list continues and more "disorders" are being added regularly. There are many diverse psychological attributes in humans and we are all in varying places on different spectrums. It just doesn't make sense to me why we categorise people as having "disorders" when it gives licence for others to be dismissive of those who have different traits. Perhaps I'm not cut out to be a psychologist after all!

Rather than seeking diagnoses, I feel we need to place more emphasis on learning how to relate to others with different personality traits. The key is in education - parenting and social programmes and within schools to teach children acceptance, tolerance, confidence, critical thinking skills, assertiveness and emotional resilience.

There are benefits to social compliance and agreeability, otherwise everyone would end up being egotistical socio-paths, but we need to educate people how to be content with their individuality and how to accept differences, rather than conforming to herd mentality and socially accepted norms.

Fairlie Primary School

Over the last few weeks, the senior students of Fairlie Primary School have been crafting and perfecting their speeches for our school competition. The Year 5 and 6's competed for a chance to attend the Mackenzie District School's Speech Competition while the top Year 4's had a chance to gain experience speaking in front of an audience.

At our Senior School Competition, we were joined by guest judges former Principal Ginny Neal, Enviroschools Co-ordinator Debbie Eddington and Bronwyn Williams from the Mackenzie Community Library. All finalists spoke with authority and confidence on their selected topic. Opinions on current local topics such as plastic in our community and DOC's Tahr culling operation were brought to the fore. In the end Maisy Judd won our Senior School competition with Payton Raj coming second and Elizabeth Bates claiming third place. These 3 represented Fairlie Primary School in the Mackenzie District School Speech competition held at Albury School a week later. On this occasion Elizabeth claimed 1st place, Payton came 3rd with Maisy gaining people's choice award.

With the quality of the speakers coming through Fairlie Primary, we are in a good place to experience success in years to come.'

Celebrating Te Wiki o te Reo Māori - Māori Language Week

Te Wiki o te Reo Māori is an initiative promoting the use of Māori language and is held each year in September. As part of our celebrations this year we were very fortunate to have Jenna Swann work with the tamariki to teach them a Māori poi dance. The tamariki were enthusiastic learners and often revisit this wonderful learning opportunity.

Ngā mihi nui Thank you very much to Jenna for sharing her knowledge and enthusiasm for supporting our commitment to weaving te reo Māori and tikanga Māori (Māori language and ways of doing) into our everyday curriculum.

Genesis delivers $50,000 - new funding for the Lake Tekapo Community

Genesis has announced a new round of funding to be awarded to local community organisations in Tekapo focussed on community enrichment, education and environment or bio-diversity enhancement. Earlier in the year, the Genesis Energy Lake Tekapo Community Fund Committee confirmed $50,000 to be shared between six community projects:

- Aoraki Mackenzie International Dark Sky Reserve - $6,382 - funding to support employment for a part-time administrator.
- High Country Medical Trust - $6,816 - establishing a Tekapo Clinic.
- Lake Tekapo Community Development Project - $15,750 - creating 'newcomers' packs, delivering community workshops and opening a Community Hub.
- Lake Tekapo School - $9,976 - contributed to the school pool upgrade which will be enjoyed by the wider community.
- Tekapo Trails Society - $2,886 - to improve and extend the Sawdon Cycle and Walking trail.
- Lake Tekapo Bright Stars - $8,213 - making the kindergarten's site safer and the playground more fun for their tamariki.

The Genesis Energy Lake Tekapo Community Fund Committee is made up of three Genesis team members and two Tekapo Community Board members who confirmed the allocations. The second round of the contestable Lake Tekapo Community Fund opens in February 2021, distributing another $50,000 to the community.

Supporting the communities around Genesis' generation assets is a key part of Genesis' culture, said Chief Operations Officer, Nigel Clark. "We look forward to supporting these key projects and initiatives making a difference in the Tekapo community. We partner with organisations that are focussed on delivering change within their community, and invite anyone interested to get involved in the next round of funding in 2021," he said.

Petronella's Gallery and Bookstore

Invites you to an afternoon with the award winning author.

Owen Marshall, who lives in Timaru with his wife Jackie, has published or edited almost 30 books – novels, short stories and poetry. He was a secondary school teacher for 25 years including Waitaki Boys' High School and Craighead Diocesan School before he became a fulltime author. He is regarded as one of New Zealand's best short story writers and has received numerous awards.

On Sunday 25 October, Owen Marshall will talk about his life as a writer. He will read from his work and there will be an opportunity for questions and book signing. At Petronella's we have a large selection of Marshall's work, including some rare and out of print books. These books will be available for purchase at the event.

Tekapo Community Garden Gathering

Sunday 18th October @ 8 Simpsons Lane

5.00 pm for drinks and nibbles

The Tekapo Community Garden project aims to connect people, plants and produce. Community gardens are known to provide numerous health benefits, including improved access to food, improved nutrition, increased physical activity and improved mental health. It is the intention that this garden will also provide space for sharing knowledge, skills and ideas and fostering a care and concern for our natural environment.

Why a Community Garden?

- Building social connection and cohesion
- Transfer of knowledge and skills within the community
- Promoting biodiversity and food resiliency

Who?

Everyone has skills to offer, whether you have specific gardening knowledge, a willingness to learn, or time or resources to contribute. The hope is that this project will bring people and groups together, of all ages and backgrounds to learn and share together.

What?

The Mackenzie Community Gardens are a collaborative project and will rely on the energy and skills of our communities to be nurtured into the future. Individuals can be involved in education and workshops, ongoing maintenance or occasional working bees. Your contribution is voluntary, however much valued!

Wondering what to do on Labour Weekend? Why not come to Fairlie for food, entertainment and shopping? Support New Zealand businesses at this NO ENTRY FEE event on Sunday 25 October at the Showgrounds.

Why are we organising the Mackenzie Highland Spring Fling? We were so disappointed that we had to cancel our annual Easter Monday Show. It was disappointing for many and a huge financial blow to those businesses which support us. To support them, we are offering FREE REGISTRATION to businesses and food/coffee stands who want to attend. We want to give back to the businesses and to our wider community. We are finalising entertainment- but here are some of the exciting things already planned... Pet Lamb Competition, Equestrian Obstacle Course, Live music with 7 acts, Carnival Rides, Pony Rides, over 80 shopping and food sites and more being planned. We will update you on our website www.mackenzieshow.co.nz. Any help from you in spreading the word about this event would be much appreciated!

I love the smell of blossom while wandering around the garden seeing what has popped up after the winter. Feeling the connection to, or empathy with, plants wishing to come out of hibernation and dance, smile and socialize. I love the first time, in early Spring, when I can kick off my shoes and socks and walk bare foot on the grass. Not so great when you hit a patch of stinging nettles though!

On Tuesday 20th October at 7.30 pm, the Mackenzie Community Library is hosting "Talking Heads". This month will be a discussion on gardening, where we can connect with others to share tips, ideas and information. From best tomato variety to growing kowhai from seed, or even on how to build a planter box, we welcome all. This will be a great introduction ahead of the Fairlie Seedling Swap that is planned for 10.00 am November 1st outside the Mackenzie College.

There is still plenty of time before the Art & Culture week in November to prepare your entry into the Art & Sculpture Exhibition. The theme is 20:20 Vision – a reflection on your life this year. There will be four categories:

- * Photography
- * Painting – any medium
- * Sculpture
- * Jewellery

There are three age groups:
 6 to 10 years 10 to 15 years 16 + years

We are encouraging artists to use recycled materials in their sculpture entries. Entry forms with more details will be available from Heartlands and 77 Art & Living.

Lemon and Honey Cake

Makes 1 x 20 cm square cake

Ingredients:

250 gm butter, softened	1 c sugar
¼ c honey	4 free range eggs
Zest and juice of 2 large lemons	2 c plain flour
3 t baking powder

Lemon and Honey Drizzle

Juice of one lemon	1 t honey
1 c icing sugar

Method:

1. Preheat the oven to 180 degrees. Line a 20cm square or round cake tin with baking paper.
2. In a large bowl, cream butter, sugar and honey until pale and thick.
3. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well.
4. Fold in the lemon juice and zest, then sifted dry ingredients and pour into prepared cake tin.
5. Bake for 1 hour or until cooked. Remove from the oven and allow to cool in the tin for 10 minutes. Remove cake from the tin and cool on a wire rack.

Lemon and Honey Drizzle:
 Mix enough icing sugar into the lemon juice and honey to form a spreading consistency

SCHOLARSHIP OFFERS YOUNG PEOPLE BOOST INTO BEEKEEPING CAREER

Young people wanting to start a career in beekeeping are being encouraged to apply for the annual Ron Mossop Youth Scholarship, sponsored by Mossop's Honey and Apiculture New Zealand.

The scholarship was set up three years ago as a way of giving young people the best possible start in the apiculture industry. The scholarship includes $2000 to be put towards best practice training and/or set up costs. It also includes membership of industry body Apiculture New Zealand for a year and attendance at the industry's national conference in the year of the award.

Last year's recipient Jess Curtis encourages young people with an interest in apiculture to apply. "I would highly recommend applying for the scholarship, even if you haven't started an apprenticeship or don't know where to start. In my opinion, the industry is only going to keep growing and the demand for skilled individuals is there."

The scholarship is named after industry pioneer, Ron Mossop, who started his family beekeeping businesses in the 1940s. "Mossop's Honey remains committed to the highest standards of beekeeping and business practices set by my father. The scholarship is a wonderful tribute to his memory."

Applications for the scholarship close on 31 October 2020. For more information and how to apply, go to <https://apinz.org.nz/scholarship-in-beekeeping/>

Heat Stroke in Dogs

Heat stroke occurs when the core body temperature increases above 41°C due to prolonged strenuous exercise (like hunting or mustering), hot and humid environmental temperatures or fever. This can cause serious complications in the body like kidney failure, internal bleeding, seizures and death.

The most common cause of heatstroke in dogs is being inside a car with the windows closed, where even on a cool day the inside temperature of a car rapidly increases to dangerous levels.

Having previously had an episode of heat stroke in the past makes that dog a high risk for relapse, because the brain's ability to regulate the body temperature becomes permanently disrupted.

Signs of heat stroke to look out for:

- Collapse or inability to get up and walk by themselves
- Bright red gums and flushed pink or red skin
- Spontaneous bleeding - seen as patches of purple bruising on the skin and gums, nose bleeds or blood in vomit or diarrhoea.

First Aid for heat stroke that you can do immediately:

- Rest – carry the dog back to the truck, don't make it walk
 - Place the dog in a cool, breezy, shaded area and start cooling it's temperature down by running lukewarm water over the dog to saturate the coat or place cool wet towels over the body and change them frequently
 - DO NOT fully immerse the animal into cold water like a river or creek, as this may worsen the symptoms of shock or cause hypothermia
 - Encourage to drink cool liquids in small amounts frequently – water or electrolytes like Gastrolyte are preferred and can be obtained from the pharmacy
- Seek Veterinary treatment as soon as possible.

Prevention of Heat Stroke:

- Keep your dog well hydrated by providing their daily water requirements of 50-100ml per kg bodyweight depending on their activity level
- If there are no natural clean water sources available along the planned route of work or hunting, then you will need to bring water along for your dogs
- Train high drive working dogs to stop and drink on command at regular intervals
- Take turns working individual dogs throughout the day, so that each dog has the opportunity to rest regularly.

Fairlie Garden Club

A beautiful day, sparkling mountain snow and 23 eager ladies was a great recipe for the successful beginning of the Garden Club season.

The first stop was at Anna and David Irving's property at Albury, where the sweeping lawns and gardens were planted out in shrubs and trees, tolerant to the conditions and the NW winds.

Julie and Tony Dobb welcomed us to their property which had a colourful spring garden planted in many perennials and meandering pathways which led to more garden surprises.

The next garden we popped into belongs to Sheryl and Warwick Bishell. Tussock and shrubs lining the driveway sheltered spring gardens where the flowering bulbs were enjoying the sunshine.

Ann Anderson's garden was a spring showcase and a delightful finish to the day was a drive around Bruce Anderson's property to view the hundreds of daffodils he has planted around the trees and on the bank of his driveway.

The next outing will be on October 19 For enquiries phone Arlene 036936400 or email afwaite445@gmail.com

Heat stroke is a life-threatening disease that will have lasting effects on your dog's ongoing working performance, so prevention is far better than treatment in this case. For more detailed information on this topic, please don't hesitate to contact us.

– packing day October 27th

Now, we are asking for YOUR help.
Please help with Operation Christmas Child by ...

Donating items or funds- pick up a brochure OR shoe box at the Heartlands Fairlie Resource Centre, call me (Jodi 685 -8181) or look online www.operationchristmaschild.org.nz (please nothing that can leak or melt, no food, nothing damaged/breakable and all items new or as-new) or by donating money (cheques payable to Samaritan's Purse, or cash, which will go to cover the shipping costs as each box cost $10 to ship and as a community we usually send about 70 boxes - last year made it to 105!!!).

We will be having a packing afternoon on Tuesday, 27th October from 2 pm at 103 School Road, Fairlie. I have to take all of the boxes to Timaru on 29th October. I do take donations year round and store them.

Art and Heritage Festival in Fairlie - 9th to 22nd November - just a few of the activities planned!

The festival opens with 'Say it with Flowers' at the Mackenzie Community Theatre or outside in the courtyard if it is a pleasant evening – AOTNZ tour. In this travelling poetry and song cabaret show, David Eggleton, the official Poet Laureate of Aotearoa, presents his own wry, comic take on Kiwiana, alongside stand-up storyteller and former Bard of Christchurch, Steve Thomas. These two veterans of the performance poetry scene in New Zealand are accompanied by master musician, Richard Wallis.

To celebrate Armistice Day on the 11th – there is the annual service at Albury and that evening the older folk will be talking memories and the history of Fairlie.

Saturday 14th – the River City Jazz Men will be playing at lunchtime in Bobby Square! Note that on your calendar!

17th November - Anthony Tonnan brings a journey of the mind, through song and story about NZ's on and off again love affair with its passenger railway system. Equal parts tragedy, comedy, and personal memoir, Rail Land weaves the songs of Anthonie Tonnon with custom material written for the show, historical letters to the editor, and meticulous notes on the railway systems of New Zealand. The show also travels with an exhibition of historic NZ Rail advertising department posters and maps, blown up to large scale.

TAKE CENTRE STAGE ...

Please remember to send in your nominations via email accessible@fairlienz.org, private message Fairlie Accessible or call into Heartlands Fairlie Resource Centre. Nominate a 'good sort' - someone special who has gone out of their way to be generous and kind to others. We will draw this monthly and the deserving winner will receive a gift voucher from a local business.

Fairlie Community Projects

Following the enthusiastic discussions in the community regarding the Dog Park proposal, the Fairlie Community Board are keen to hear the thoughts of the community on possible projects for 2020/2021. Projects can only be undertaken within the Fairlie township and can include:

- * facilities (community centre & swimming pool)
- * parks & reserves
- * town centre open spaces
- * walkways

Projects could involve improvements to existing facilities or the creation of new facilities.

Please visit our engagement website to share your thoughts and ideas.

<https://letstalk.mackenzie.govt.nz/fairlie-community-board-projects>

The community board will consider all suggestions before planning projects for the coming year. Remember that community board meetings are open to the public and there is the opportunity to address the board at the start of every meeting. For more information contact us on (03) 685 9010.

Wheelie Bin Collection

Now we've moved in to daylight saving Envirowaste will be making use of the additional daylight hours and starting their run a little earlier.

Please make sure your bins are out before 7am on collection day to ensure they aren't missed.

We appreciate your co-operation!

As part of the Mackenzie Spatial Planning Project, three potential options have been developed each for the towns of Fairlie, Tekapo (Takapō) and Twizel, following a series of community workshops. These options show how different approaches to growth will affect the future planning of each town over the next thirty years, impacting the provision of things like infrastructure, green space, community facilities, visitor accommodation and housing density.

At the same time, concept plans have been developed for the smaller rural settlements of Albury, Kimbell and Burkes Pass (Te Kopi-O-Ōpihi). These plans have been developed following workshops held with each community to identify the issues and opportunities facing each settlement.

Outcomes from this work will inform the upcoming review of the District Plan.

The engagement document and option survey can be viewed on Council's community engagement website at: letstalk.mackenzie.govt.nz/mackenzie-spatial-plans/survey

Lifeguards -Twizel and Strathconan (Fairlie) Pools

About

CLM (Community Leisure Management)  are seeking applications from individuals keen to join our team of Pool Lifeguards at the Twizel and Strathconan (Fairlie) Pools.

Although these roles have the key focus of public safety, we are seeking individuals who have a passion for Customer Service and are excited to interact with our customers in a positive and approachable manner to ensure they have an enjoyable experience in our facilities.

The Role

The roles need motivated individuals who can follow systems and procedures correctly, and work well within a team.

The ideal candidates should have the following attributes:

- Follow systems and procedures correctly all the time
- Focus on health & safety for the facility
- Passionate about people and delivering high levels of customer service
- Confident and experienced in the aquatic environment
- Experience dealing with conflicts or problem resolution

You need to be:

- Motivated, enthusiastic, reliable;
- Effective with communication;
- Strong with time management
- Confident swimmer
- Willing to clean

Qualifications

Relevant qualifications is advantageous, however training will be provided for these roles, and includes holding a current First Aid Certificate, obtaining a PLPC (Pool Lifeguard practising Certificate) which is a requirement for the roles.

Benefits

The roles are structured around the opening hours of the facility and therefore may include early and late shifts, and weekend work. You need to enjoy working with a team, be friendly, enthusiastic, honest and enjoy a bit of fun. Fantastic customer service skills are a must! Free use of facilities and on-going training and development.

If you are a team player and enjoy an exciting work environment please apply in writing with a current CV and a covering letter to Vaughan Hope – VAH@clmnz.co.nz

Application period closes 19th October 2020.

Homes destroyed in Ohau Fire

Following the devastating fire at Lake Ohau, Mackenzie Civil Defence assisted the Waitaki District Council to aid the evacuees. This was done in the Twizel Event Centre, with the assistance of the Twizel Community Response team and Mackenzie District Council staff.

Mackenzie Civil Defence assisted with accommodation for two nights, food and provided supplies such as toiletries and clothing as some of the residents had only bare essentials at the time of the evacuation.

From early morning of Sunday 4th October, following the evacuation of all permanent and holidaymakers from the Lake Ohau village, Mackenzie Civil Defence team members were available to help and they liaised constantly with the Waitaki Civil Defence Team.

Our thoughts are with all those affected by this destructive event. The fire is still burning at time of print.

Somewhere in New Zealand you have always wanted to visit? Now is the best time!
